1976: The Days Before Gas Fireplaces
In 1976, Montigo president and founder, Dan Binzer, started installing zero-clearance wood burning fireplaces for local builders in Vancouver, BC. Over the years, demand grew for a gas alternative, and Dan engineered and manufactured the first ever sandpan logset. The logset was installed in a zero-clearance wood burning fireplaces, resulting in one of the first zero-clearance gas fireplaces on the market.

1985: Gas Fireplace Manufacturing Begins
Demand for gas grew rapidly, especially among multi-unit developments so Dan Binzer started a company called Canadian Heating that would offer full service design, engineering and manufacturing for gas fireplaces. Under the Montigo brand, Canadian Heating began manufacturing and selling a wide selection of zero-clearance gas fireplaces throughout Canada and in 1985 development began for the latest and greatest in gas fireplace technology – direct venting.
